

A Special Day

Sal woke up early and ran downstairs with a big smile on her face.

“I have made you your favourite breakfast,” said Mum. Sal saw there was a special breakfast waiting for her on the table. “Yum, pancakes!” Sal said.

After Sal had finished her pancakes, Mum gave her a present wrapped in pretty green paper with a pink bow on top.

“Thanks!” Sal said. She shook it and she heard it make a rattle.

“I think I know what it is!” said Sal happily.

Sal put it in her bedroom and got ready for school. “I will have to play with it later,” she said.

After Sal got dressed in for school, her mum drove her to school.

“Have an extra good day at school!” said her mum as she got out of the car.

A Special Day

1. Why did Sal wake up early and run downstairs?

---

---

2. What is Sal's favourite breakfast?

---

---

3. Why did Sal shake her present?

---

---

4. How did Sal get to school?

---

---

5. What present do you think Sal got?

---

---

6. Draw Sal's wrapped present.

A Special Day

1. Why did Sal wake up early and run downstairs?

She was excited because it was her birthday.

2. What is Sal's favourite breakfast?

Pancakes.

3. Why did Sal shake her present?

To try and guess what it might be.

4. How did Sal get to school?

Mum drove her to school.

5. What present do you think Sal got?

(The answer should be something that rattles that a young girl would like).

6. Draw Sal's wrapped present.

The picture should show
a present wrapped in green paper with a pink bow on top.