

At the Playground

Dan, Tim and Sally were at the playground.

“This is what I like the best,” said Sally, as she ran to the swing.

“I like the monkey bars best, but my arms are sore. I will go on the swing, too” said Tim.

“I like the slide best,” said Dan.

He climbed up the ladder and went down the green slide. At the bottom of the slide, he saw a big spider.

“I don’t want to go on the slide anymore,” said Dan. He went over to the swings, too.

After a while Tim noticed it was getting dark. The sun had almost gone.

“We should go home,” said Dan.

At the Playground

1. What did Sally like best?

2. Why did Tim go on the swing?

3. What colour was the slide?

4. Why didn't Dan want to go on the slide anymore?

5. Why did Dan say "We should go home"?

6. What is your favourite thing to do at the playground?

At the Playground

1. What did Sally like best?

The swing.

2. Why did Tim go on the swing?

His arms were too sore to go on the monkey bars.

3. What colour was the slide?

Green.

4. Why didn't Dan want to go on the slide anymore?

There was a spider at the bottom.

5. Why did Dan say "We should go home"?

It was getting dark. The sun was almost gone.

6. What is your favourite thing to do at the playground?