

David's Birthday

It was David's birthday. He played some party games with his friends. He liked 'pin the tail on the donkey' the best. He always won.

After the games, David's mum brought out a chocolate cake with 6 candles on top. She cut it up and gave some to his David's friends.

After his friends had gone home, David went for a ride on his new red bike around the yard.

"Can I have a go?" asked Sally. But David wasn't going to let anyone ride it.
