

Plural and Singular Possessive Nouns

Possessive noun are nouns that show ownership or possession.

An apostrophe after by the 's' is needed.

For example: The painterss' brushes needed cleaning.

This punctuation shows that the painters own the brushes.

Singular	Plural
To show possession for single nouns, the apostrophe goes before the s For example: Tim's coach.	To show possession for plural nouns, the apostrophe goes after the s For example: The swimmers' coach. If plural noun doesn't end in s, the apostrophe goes before. For example: The children's toys.

The following sentences show possession, but are missing punctuation.

Look at the possessive noun beside each sentence. Circle green if singular and blue if plural. Then fill in the blank.

- The trees' leaves were falling off. trees
- The _____ yo-yo broke. boy
- The _____ staff room is huge. teachers
- The _____ parade was beautiful. soldiers
- The _____ boots were ruined. fireman
- _____ heart was beating quickly. Jessica
- The _____ restaurant was getting busy. chefs
- The _____ collar was too tight. dog
- The _____ basketball game had started. women
- _____ new necklace was gold. Georgia

Plural and Singular Possessive Nouns-Answers

Possessive noun are nouns that show ownership or possession.

An apostrophe after by the 's' is needed.

For example: The painterss' brushes needed cleaning.

This punctuation shows that the painters own the brushes.

Singular	Plural
To show possession for single nouns, the apostrophe goes before the s For example: Tim's coach.	To show possession for plural nouns, the apostrophe goes after the s For example: The swimmers' coach. If plural noun doesn't end in s, the apostrophe goes before. For example: The children's toys.

The following sentences show possession, but are missing punctuation.

Look at the possessive noun beside each sentence. Circle green if singular and blue if plural. Then fill in the blank.

- The trees' leaves were falling off. trees
- The boy's yo-yo broke. boy
- The teachers' staff room is huge. teachers
- The soliders' parade was beautiful. soldiers
- The fireman's boots were ruined. fireman
- Jessica's heart was beating quickly. Jessica
- The chefs' restaurant was getting busy. chefs
- The dog's collar was too tight. dog
- The women's basketball game had started. women
- Georgia's new necklace was gold. Georgia