Similes and Metaphors

Similes make a comparison between two different things, normally using like or as. For example: Slippery as an eel	Metaphors also state a comparison between two different things. They often use is or was. For example: You are my sunshine

What are the following similes and metaphors trying to tell the reader?

1. She sleeps like a log.

   _____

2. The girl was as quiet as a mouse.

   _____

3. My older brother is a night owl.

   _____

4. The raincoat kept Ms Saunders as dry as a bone.

   _____

5. His bedroom was a pigsty.

   _____

6. The classroom was a zoo.

   _____

7. The bike is as light as a feather.

   _____

8. I am my dad's little angel.

_____