

Synonyms

Synonyms are words that have the same or a very similar meaning.

For example: beautiful and handsome

Write a synonym for each of the following words.

| | | | |
|-------------|--------------|-----------------|--------------|
| noisy _____ | shut _____ | disappear _____ | kind _____ |
| start _____ | gather _____ | scary _____ | scream _____ |

From each of the pairs of words above, choose one word to complete the sentences below.

1. The squirrel _____ nuts, ready for the long winter.
2. It was a _____ thought of Abbey's to help the lady cross the street.
3. The magician stunned the crowd when he made the elephant _____.
4. Hayley didn't like it when the classroom was too _____.
5. "Come back here!" _____ his angry owner.
6. The art gallery always _____ early on Sundays.
7. The car race was about to _____.
8. I had to close my eyes during the movie because it was too _____.

Circle the synonym for each of the following underlined words.

The tired boy stared at his maths book looking confused.

happy

angry

bewildered

Danielle knew something was wrong with her dog from the way it was behaving.

breathing

acting moving

sitting

drinking

"We do not permit you to stay out that late," said mum.

give

see

allow

need

hope

The customer walked up to the desk to inquire about a new car.

buy

talk

argue

ask

find