

Past, Present and Future Verbs

Past	Present	Future
The dog barked at the runner.	The dog barks at the runner.	The dog will bark at the runner.

Read each sentence and work out whether the verb is past tense, present tense or past tense.

Write your answer on the line beside.

1. Nate will run a race tomorrow. _____
2. The cat jumped over the back fence. _____
3. The snow falls over the city. _____
4. The basket ball bounces down the road. _____
5. The boys watched a movie. _____
6. If it rains again tomorrow, the pool will flood. _____
7. The dog chased the ball. _____
8. Mr Frill will closes the door. _____

Change past tense into present tense.

- The donkey pulled the cart. The donkey pulls the cart.
- She grabbed the ball. _____
- Mum cooked dinner. _____
- The water bottle dropped. _____

Change present tense into future tense.

- The girl runs to school. _____
- James orders his lunch. _____
- The light switches on. _____

Change future tense into past tense.

- George will cook dinner. _____
- The footballer will kick the ball. _____
- The chef will stir the stew. _____